Forrest Hutton Hauckin, son of Thomas and Mary Hauckin was born in Randolph County, W. Va. June 22, 1880 and died at Hinton, August 29, 1910. The remains were brought to the home of his parents near Hoarman and on Wednesday conveyed to the Bethel Church near by, where in the presence of relatives and a large number of friends the funeral services were conducted by the family pastor, Rev. H. Z. Burr of the M. E. Church, South, assisted by Revs. Cline and Beverage of the Brethren Church after which he was laid to rest in the cemetery by the church.

The death of this estimable young man has indeed cast a gloom over the entire community, and bereaved family have the sympathy of all. For many years Mr. Hauckin had been a prominent and successful teacher in our public schools. His most intimate friends of whom there are many, testify with one voice to the fact that he had no bad habits. Besides his parents he is survived by 4 brothers and 2 sisters; Cecil, Harper, Elmer, Ward, Woodsie and Clara

Nitro couple hurt in one-vehicle crash

A Nitro couple was taken to Thomas Memorial Hospital following a one-vehicle accident Wednesday afternoon on 40th Street in Nitro, police said.

Moody N. Sharp, 68, of 40th Street apparently lost control of the vehicle, which went through a split rail fence and hit a brick retaining wall at about 1:45 p.m., according to Officer Mike Farley of the Nitro Police Department.

Sharp and his wife, Marjorie, a passenger in the vehicle, were listed in fair condition Wednesday night, a hospital spokesman said.

Wanless

Margaret Ann Cassell, the wife of James Cassell, deceased, died in her 85th year at the home of H. L. Keeler, where she has made her home since 1886. She had been a member of the Southern Methodist Church for a number of years. Her illness was long and with the infirmities of old age made her suffering too great for her to stand. The end came peacefully though her suffering was intense. She expressed her willingness & desire to be free from this prison house and join those on the other side where old age & infirmities is not known. Aunt Margaret leaves a host of friends & relatives, 9 children all living; 60 grand children, with 7 dead & 52 great grandchildren with 5 dead. A few days before her death she requested that her old pastor, Rev. H. O. Burr, should preach her funeral at the home and that all her burial fixtures should be plain. Her wishes were carried out. Rev Burr preached to a large crowd from the 4th Chapter & 9th verse of Hebrews, after which her remains were laid to rest by the side of her husband to wait the resurrection morning.

"Why should our tears in sorrow
flow,
When God recalls his own and bids them leave a world of woe
For an immortal crown?"

"Is not e'en death again to those whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
To open them in heaven.

Their toils are past, their work
is done,
And they are fully blest;
They've fought the fight, the victory won.
And entered into rest"

Henry.

Brown Galford, a highly respected citizen and confederate soldier died at his home near Cass, Monday night. He leaves 4 sons, 3 daughters and many friends to mourn his loss. He was laid to rest Wednesday morning in the Warless graveyard. Preach to his ashes.

Brown N. Galford died very suddenly at the home of his son, Allen Galford on Back Alleyway, Monday, October 5. (1911), aged about 70 years. He had been threshing and had left his machine at a neighbors, and feeling sick had hurried home and soon died. His children and his three sisters were at his bedside. Brown Galford was a good citizen and an honest man. He was a Confederate soldier in the 19th Virginia Cavalry and a son of the late Allen Galford. as one falls peacefully upon sleep, so he died — "numbered among thy people, I expect thy face to see, because Thou didst for sinners die, Jesus, remember me."

K.

We wish to express through the Times, our sincere thanks to our many friends who rendered so much kindness and help in the sickness and death of our beloved father.

Allen & Alice Galford

Mrs. Mary Dalford Carpenter

Mrs. Mary Hannah Dalford Carpenter, aged 70 years, wife of Ellett Carpenter, died on Saturday morning, March 3, 1951, at her home at Stony Bottom after a long illness.

On Sunday afternoon the funeral service was held from the home by her pastor, Rev. Graham Keyes. Burial in the family cemetery near the home.

The deceased is survived by her husband and four children by a former marriage, Mrs. Elvie Jackson and Jesse Thomas of Coalton; Mrs. Edith Weeks of Clover Lick, and Hunter Thomas of Slaty Fork.

Mrs. Carpenter was a daughter of the late Brown Dalford of Beck Alleghany. The surviving members of her father's family are Mrs. Agnes McCloud, Allen, Samuel and Jacob Dalford.

Her first husband was George Thomas, who preceded her about twenty years since.

In Memoriam

In memory of our dear mother who passed away
one year ago today, November 30, 1942.

Nannie Luella Gordon Sutton, born at Greenhill, Highland County, Virginia, December 5, 1873. Died at her home near Cass, November 30, 1942, after a long illness, aged 68 years 11 months 24 days. On Wednesday afternoon the funeral was conducted from the home by her pastor, Rev. W. M. De Haven. Her body was laid to rest in the Wanlass Cemetery.

She was married to Winters W. Sutton, December 18, 1895. She is survived by husband and nine children: Mrs. Kenna Reproke, Mrs. Maude Van Osdale, Clyde and Frank Sutton, Mrs. Kyle Curtis, Ruth,
Carrie and Bernice Sutton. Thirteen grandchildren, two great grandchildren. One infant son preceded her to the grave November 10, 1910.

She was a life long member of the Methodist Church and a friend to all.

We've all been sad this lonely year through,
For our Dear Mother so loyal and true;
But in all your suffering through night and day -
God in His wisdom took you away
Our hands were willing our hearts were true
In every kind act we did for you,
Like a flower you faded and passed away
But will live in our memory from day to day.

Visiting in the County last week were Mr & Mrs. Richard Clifton, of Norman, Oklahoma, her two sisters, Olivia Voyles, Harrah, Oklahoma, Velva McCraw, Tecumseh, Oklahoma and her two aunts, Kathryn McLaughlin Shirey, Bethany, Oklahoma, and Lena McLaughlin Stapp, Tecumseh, Oklahoma. Mrs. Shirey and Mrs. Stapp were born in Cass. Being descendants of James Longstreet McLaughlin and Virginia Balford, they were looking up relatives and family history while in the County. A distant cousin, Lucille Zinn, of Buckhannon, came over to meet with them. James McLaughlin sold his farm near Cass in 1910 and moved to Oklahoma. Mrs. Clifton had a check written to the Pocahontas Times in 1910 on which James spelled his name McLaughlin.

Died

Mrs. Precilious Rigglesman Jacy, widow of the late William J. Jacy, died December 26, 1935, at the home of her son, Woodford H. Jacy, at Huttonsville. Had she lived until April 26, 1936, she would have been 100 years old. Up until two days before her death she had been in apparently good health; she suffered a stroke of paralysis. On Thursday, a short funeral service was held at the home by Rev. L. V. Bennetta.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Martin and Hester Swadley Rigglesman and was born on Paint Mountain. Her husband William Jacy died about twenty five years ago; their children are Martha Lee Jacy Rensencrance and Woodford H. Jacy. She is survived by six step children, William J., John M., Oliver L., Jacob J. Jacy, Florence Simmons and Early V. Gelford. An aged brother, John Rigglesman, of Montereyville, is the one remaining member of Martin Rigglesman's large family.

Kelly, ÷ Howard

The home of the Rev. Carl Vit, in Pacific Grove, California, was the setting for the Army wedding of Michael L. Kelly and Roselyn Howard on July 1, 1980.

Since the bride's and bridegroom's parents could not be present, friends of the couple attended to the reception.

Michael and his wife are both Privates in the Army and are attending the Language College in Monterey, California where Michael studies German and his wife, Korean. Roselyn is the daughter of Martha and John E. Jones, of Conyers, Georgia. Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kelly, of Cass, and the grandson of Harry Wanless.

Michael is a Graduate of Pocahontas County High School, class of 1979.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kelly, of Cass will leave September 4 (1980) for Glan' munchedweiler, Germany, for a month to visit Mrs. Kelly's Parents.

Mrs Hulda Cassell Auldridge, aged about 80 years, died at her home at Onoto on Tuesday morning, January 30, 1940. She had been in failing health for a number of years, and her death was not unexpected. On Wednesday her body was buried in the Waugh graveyard on Indian Draft, the service being conducted from the Edray Church by her pastor, Rev. R. H. Skaggs.

Mrs. Auldridge was the daughter of the late Samuel and Eliza Tomlinson Cassell of Back Alleybury. Of a large family only 2 members remain, Mrs George Baptes and Mrs Mary Ann Tallman.

About ~~50~~<sup>fifty</sup> years ago she became the wife of George A. C. Auldridge, who survives. She did him good, <sup>and</sup> not evil all the days of her life. She was a lifelong member of the Methodist Church.

George A. C. Auldridge aged 77 years died at his home at Onoto, on Tuesday ~~morning~~, February 13, 1940. For a number of years he had been an invalid. On Wednesday afternoon the funeral service was conducted from the Edray Church by Rev. R. H. Skaggs and Rev. O. W. Miles, Burial in the Waugh Cemetery on Indian Draft. The pall bearers were Lee, Ivan and Russell Barlow, Clark Baxter, Lake Van Keenan and Calvin Sharp.

On November 4, 1886, Mr Auldridge married Miss Huldah Cassell who preceded her husband by two weeks, January 30, 1940.

The deceased was a son of the late James Auldridge. His mother was a Barlow. Of his father's family their remains a half sister, Mrs. P. L. Carter November 23, 1884 Mr Auldridge made a public confession of his faith and soon joined the Methodist Church. He held out faithful to the end, serving his Master as church steward, assistant superintendent and superintendent of the Sunday School. At his written request the following hymns of the church were used at the funeral service. "Work For the Night is coming", "Jesus Lover of my Soul" "Nearer my God To Thee", "What a Friend we have in Jesus"

Mr Auldridge had the respect of all as an honest, upright citizen, an obliging friend and neighbor. He was honored with public office, serving as member of the Board of Education, Deputy Sheriff and Assessor. Once he was the nominee of his

Mrs. Rachel Swink died at her home near Cass, April 14, 1925. Her age was 68.

Pocahontas Times 4/30/1925

Mrs. Rachel Swink

On April 14, 1925, Mrs. Rachel Swink, a well known resident of the Wanless Community, near Cass, passed to her reward. Her maiden name was Cassell. She spent her entire life in that community. At the time of her death she lacked one month of being 68 years of age.

On October 5, 1876 she was united in marriage to Z. J. Swink by Rev. H. M. Strickler. Two sons, Charles L. and Price L. survive her. One child died in infancy. She had six sisters, four of whom survive her and one brother who died a year ago. — — —

Mrs. Swink was converted in 1882, during the ministry of Rev. L. Fox and united with the Greenbank M. E. Church South. In 1888 when a church was organized at Wanless under the ministry of Rev. W. H. Ballengee she transferred her membership to that church.

She lived a consecrated Christian life. She was always at the service of her church, day or night, summer or winter as long as her health permitted. During almost all her Christian life she was a Sunday School teacher. Her home was the preacher's home. For many years she had been a subscriber to the Baltimore Southern Methodist. She loved her Bible and read it through several times. She ~~tried~~ <sup>lived</sup> in the companionship of God's people. When the Christians of the community gathered at her home for worship. When she could no longer attend church she would give expression to her joy in shouts of praise.

In the autumn of 1922 she was paralyzed. Since then she had been practically helpless, she could not even change her position in bed without assistance. During her illness of two and one half years her son Charles and his wife cared for her day and night with a devotion that was most beautiful and praiseworthy. With the exception of one day Charles had not been out of her presence over four hours at a time.

Mrs. Swink had an attack of flu about two weeks before her death from which she could not rally. Her death was sudden.

The funeral service was conducted at the Wanless Church by Rev. L. E. Shires assisted by Rev. Fred Gray on April 16 after which she was laid to rest in the Wanless Cemetery to await the resurrection.
